Brian McKeen, managing partner of McKeen & Associates of Detroit (www.mckeenassociates.com), was honorably mentioned for the Daniel J. Wright Lifetime Achievement Award for his work on behalf of children with birth injuries.

McKeen's law firm specializes in securing compensation for children who are victims of medical negligence to ensure their proper care throughout their lifetimes. McKeen and his associates have obtained millions on behalf of children who obtained lifelong disabilities through medical negligence during birth. McKeen, a nationally renowned speaker and author on the subject has appeared on numerous radio talk shows and news outlets throughout the country to educate the public on medical accountability.

The Wright award recognizes outstanding work for Michigan's children and is named for Daniel J. Wright also worked on legislation to give foster children a greater voice in their life decisions.

"I'm humbled and honored this venerable organization recognized my work on behalf of children disabled through medical negligence," said McKeen. "It has, and continues to be, my lifelong commitment to ensure these children are recognized and properly taken care of throughout their lives."
