

Detroit Legal News.

Monday, February 15, 2016

Vol. CXXI, No. 32

75 Cents

Legal People

McKeen & Associates of Detroit

Euel W. Kinsey

Brian McKeen, managing partner of McKeen & Associates of Detroit, (www.mckeenassociates.com) spoke at the Michigan Association for Justice (MAJ) 26th annual “Seminar in the Snow” at Shanty Creek in Bellaire, Michigan on February 5. McKeen spoke on the subject of “Attorney Conducted Voire Dire.”

In addition, Euel W. Kinsey Jr., an associate attorney at McKeen & Associates, has joined the faculty of his alma mater, University of Detroit Mercy Law School, as an adjunct professor.

Kinsey began teaching a course on medical malpractice to upper level students this term.

For the past 28 years, Kinsey’s practice has focused on medical malpractice litigation representing injured patients. A significant portion of his practice has involved birth trauma litigation. He has been with McKeen & Associates 13 years. Kinsey has also worked as an assistant prosecuting attorney for Wayne County, and as an associate at a large law firm where he litigated Workers Compensation cases and labor law issues.

Kinsey earned his law degree from University of Detroit Mercy School of Law and his bachelor's degree in business administration from University of Michigan.

Kinsey is licensed in six states besides Michigan and currently practices in five. He holds an AV Preeminent rating with Martindale Hubble. He has been named a Michigan Super Lawyer; a Top Attorney in Michigan by New York Times, a DBusiness Leading Lawyer; American Registry of the Finest Lawyers in the World; and Sutton Who's Who in American Law.

An accomplished pilot, Kinsey is a past chair and currently serves as council member of the Aviation Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan. Kinsey periodically sits as a case evaluator in Macomb and Wayne Counties reviewing other personal injury cases and he is a member of the Michigan and American Associations for Justice.