Steven Hurbis

McKeen & Associates welcomes a recent law school graduate, Steven Hurbis, as an associate attorney to its law practice.

Hurbis earned his law degree from the University of Illinois College of Law, and a Bachelor of Arts from Eastern Michigan University, where he majored in political science.

As a law student Hurbis represented clients at the University of Illinois Civil Litigation Clinic and also worked for a year in the Community Preservation Clinic where he represented clients in danger of losing their homes. He won a motion resulting in the largest sanctions awarded in the Community Preservation Clinic's history.
