McKeen & Associates PC

Brian McKeen, managing partner of McKeen & Associates of Detroit, (www.mckeenassociates.com) has been chosen as faculty for an upcoming American Association for Justice (AAJ) seminar September 25 and 26, at AAJ headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The seminar, "Decision Making and Errors in the Emergency Room," features five top medical negligence attorneys and an emergency medicine physician. This is the AAJ's first seminar on this topic, designed for attorneys to build a solid understanding of emergency medicine decision making; differential diagnosis; proving causation; and deposition techniques for Emergency Room cases.
